2. THE CLAIM

This Agreement forms the basis on which instructions are accepted by Counsel from the Solicitor to act on a conditional fee basis for the Client in his/her claim for damages suffered on or about _____.

3. INCORPORATION OF APIL/PIBA STANDARD TERMS

This Agreement forms the basis on which instructions are accepted by Counsel from the Solicitor to act under a conditional fee agreement and incorporates PIBA's standard terms and conditions for CFAs in personal injuries and clinical negligence cases which are available on the PIBA and APIL websites and are incorporated in, but not annexed to this agreement ["the Standard Terms"].

4. THE AGREEMENT

This agreement is a contract enforceable at law.

5. SOLICITOR'S OBLIGATION TO PAY

- (1) Upon success, subject as provided below, the Solicitor is liable to pay Counsel's normal and success fees.
- (2) Subject to clauses 10 to 12 below the amounts of fees and expenses payable to Counsel under this agreement are payable whether or not the Solicitor is or will be paid by the Client or Opponent.
- (3) Upon success the Solicitor will promptly conclude by agreement or assessment the question of costs and will pay Counsel promptly and in any event not later than one month after receipt of such costs as are recovered from the Opponent/s the full sum due under this agreement.
- (4) Such part of Counsel's normal fees which is not recovered from the losing Opponent and any success fees may be capped in accordance with paragraphs 11 to 13 below.
- (5) In the event of failure the Solicitor's obligation to pay Counsel's normal and success fees is as set out in clause 10 of the Standard Terms.

6. THIS SCOPE OF THIS AGREEMENT IS AS FOLLOWS:

(1) What is covered by this agreement

This agreement relates to and covers:

- (i) all work already done and all further work to be undertaken by Counsel in respect of the Claim until the Claim is won, lost or otherwise concluded, or this agreement is terminated; or
- (ii) is limited to part only of proceedings, specifically: _____.

[DELETE AS APPROPRIATE]

If no option has been chosen on the face of the document, Counsel will be deemed to have chosen OPTION (i).

(2) What is not covered by this agreement

- Any Part 20 claim against the Client;
- Any appeal;
- Any appeal against an interim order or final judgment made by the Opponent(s);
- Any counter claim or defence by way of set off which is still in existence after the claim has settled or been won, lost or otherwise concluded;
- Any application under an award of provisional damages that might be obtained in these proceedings or to vary any order for periodical payments that might be made in these proceedings;
- Enforcement of any judgment or order.

7. DELIVERY OF THE BRIEF BY THE SOLICITOR

The Solicitor agrees to deliver the brief for trial not less than 7_ days before the trial of all issues or of any preliminary issue and the brief shall be deemed delivered 7 days before the trial for the purpose of Counsel's entitlement to a brief fee.

8. COUNSEL'S NORMAL FEES

(a) The 'normal rate' for Counsel's fees upon which Counsel's success fee is to be applied will be as follows:-

- Advisory work and drafting in accordance with counsel's hourly rate in this field currently £_____
- Brief fees for fast track trials lasting no more than one day will be as per CPR Part 46 "Fast Track Trial Costs" or as per the "Trial Advocacy Fees" under CPR Part 45 Section IIIA where applicable.
- Any other hearing, including Multi-track trials, will be quoted for on a case-by-case basis upon delivery of the brief.

(b) Reasonableness of Counsel's fees

The fees set out above are considered by the Solicitor to be reasonable for Counsel's work in this claim.

(c) Inflation Review

Counsel's normal fees will be subject to review with effect from each successive anniversary of the date of this agreement but Counsel will not increase the normal fees by more than any increase in the rate of inflation measured by the Retail Prices Index.

COUNSEL'S SUCCESS FEE

9. The rate of Counsel's success fee will be as follows:

Either: [DELETE AS APPROPRIATE]

[1] NONE

Or:

[2] 100%

If no option has been chosen on the face of the document, Counsel will be deemed to have chosen OPTION 1.

10. Paying Counsel's Success fees

- [1] If the Client wins and Counsel has charged a success fee then the Solicitor is liable to pay Counsel's success fee.
- [2] Counsel's success fee including VAT is subject to a maximum limit (a) in personal injury proceedings at first instance, 25%; and (b) in all other proceedings, 100% of (a) general damages for pain, suffering, and loss of amenity; and (b) damages for pecuniary loss, other than future pecuniary loss, net of any sums recoverable by the Compensation Recovery Unit of the Department for Work and Pensions ("the Cap").
- [3] In circumstances when the Cap applies Counsel's success fee will be payable by the solicitor.
- [4] In the event that the figure for past loss and general damages has (a) not been determined at trial or assessment; and (b) Counsel and Solicitor are unable to agree the appropriate level of general damages and past pecuniary loss; and (c) Counsel's entitlement to fees is in dispute, the parties shall follow the procedure set out in 10(5) and (6) of the Standard Terms and Conditions.
- [5] If the Opponent recovers any costs order against the Client that costs order does not affect the calculation of the Cap set out in [2] – [3] above.

PAYMENT OF COUNSEL'S NON RECOVERED FEES

11. Counsel's normal fees

In the event that, after settlement or assessment of costs, some of Counsel's normal fees are not recovered from the Opponent, then subject to clause 12 below, the Solicitor will be liable for and will pay any of Counsel's normal fees which are not recovered from the Opponent.

12. Unrecovered fees following an Opponent's Part 36 Offer

If the Opponent makes a Part 36 offer and the Client recovers damages and interest less than the offer and as a result also recovers no costs from some date after the Part 36 offer then:

[1] if Counsel advised that the offer should be accepted and the Client rejected that advice and pressed on, Counsel is entitled to normal fees and success fee for the work done before the Part 36 offer was made and only normal fees for work done after the part 36 offer was made.

[2] if Counsel advised that the Part 36 offer be rejected then Counsel is not entitled to recover any fees from the date after which the Client recovered no costs because of the effect of the Part 36 offer.
